

Destruction Wrought by Mines and Shell Fire

FRENCH SOLDIERS AT GUISCARD SALVAGING MATERIAL FROM A HOUSE WHICH HAD BEEN RUINED BY A MINE. THOUSANDS OF SUCH MINES WERE EMPLOYED TO BLOW UP BUILDINGS WHEN THE GERMANS EVACUATED TOWNS.

(© French Pictorial Service.)

MAIN STREET IN ARMENTIERES AFTER THE STORM OF BATTLE HAD SWEEPED OVER THE TOWN. FEW CITIES IN THE OCCUPIED REGIONS HAVE BEEN THE SCENE OF SUCH BITTERLY CONTESTED CONFLICTS.

(© British Official from Underwood & Underwood.)